“Rest assured you will be staying in a place fit for a King!”

Travel news

Long haul
Sujan Rajmahal Palace, Jaipur
Live like royalty with a stay at the Sujan Rajmahal Palace in the ‘Pink City’ of Jaipur. Opening this month, the palace is steeped in a rich and indeed colourful history, as it was originally built for the Maharaja of Jaipur in 1729 and has since housed royalty from around the world. This is reflected through its elegant design with an original marble staircase, intricate chandeliers and mirrored ceilings, so rest assured you will be staying in a place fit for a king.

Words: Bethan Rees